

CORBETT COVERS JOHNSON'S MONEY

Declares That He Really Wants to Take Whirl With Black Champion.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The managing directors and matchmakers of the leading boxing clubs in greater New York are planning to organize a sort of protective association, which will curb the demands of pugilists who want all known money put into their hands.

The Marathon A. C. of Brooklyn, the Fairmount A. C. in the Bronx, and the National Academy, which will require business shortly in new quarters, will probably have an understanding by which pugilists will have to box in the most respectable manner for reasonable money or go away to some other city where promoters are much easier than the local ones intend to be hereafter. There will be no more boxing of importance at the leading clubs until next week, when the promoters and members wish to respect Holy Week. But a week from Tuesday night Al Kaufman will box Tony Lopez at the Fairmount A. C., the bout being slated to go ten rounds.

Corbett Posing Forfeit.

Jim Corbett to-day forwarded a check for $5,000 to a local stakeholder, with instructions to cover Johnson's forfeit with the same. Corbett insists that he is not boxing in the money, but he wants to fight the negro champion, and states that, as he was the first white man in America to issue a challenge, he is entitled to present one. Kaufman, Ketchel, Langford and others who have been hurling challenges and posing as boxing champions, when they are asked to fight, have been found to be in the same class as the local ones who have learned Corbett had covered his $5,000, and said: "Sure."

But Johnson did not name any particular time, for the excellent reason that the negro has no idea of fighting for a year, if then. At 12 o'clock today the time limit placed on his $5,000 forfeit by Johnson, expired without a word, or even a wag of the head, from Corbett, who is in Boston.

Racing Dates.

It was reported to-day that racing dates for the coming season would be announced by the Jockey Club stewards next Wednesday, and that all of the tracks would conduct meetings.

August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club, was quoted as saying that a tentative schedule had been arranged to the different tracks, but it was not yet in shape to be made public. When the schedule is made known the turfmen are wondering whether Brighton will be considered. If Brighton is left out entirely, the turfmen are close to the wall, for it is the only track in the country which is in close touch with the affairs of W. A. Engeman.

Manager Stallings, of the Highlanders, is a firm believer apparently in first-class minor league material, even though it is lacking in major league experience. Stallings has confidence in the ability of Engle, McConnell, Quinn, Knight, Gardner, Demmitt and Cree, who are fresh from the minors. But the Highlanders' manager says that the greatest stars in the baseball world were beginners in the bush leagues, so he has hopes.

RUN LONG AND FAST.

Riverside Hunt Has Fine Day After The Hounds.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PETERSBURG, Va., April 3.—One of the longest and fastest runs of the season was much enjoyed by the huntmen who were out this afternoon. The hounds were thrown in at Ritchie's store, and circled around through Branch's woods, where several stiff fences were jumped in excellent form. They were brought to the first check on the River Road and were thrown in again at McIlwain's woods, where a fast trail lay for two miles over to Cox Road. They then continued through Sussex Marecks and Gereck's farms, and across Granite Grove field to Ordinary Road, then around up Cox Road to the entrance of the club grounds, where a hot finish was made over four fences to the kill at the kennels.

The hunt was over twenty stiff fences and four ditches, all of which were taken in good form. The fifteen hounds composing the pack ran beautifully, giving plenty of mouth with every jump.

I Am

selling more wood now than I ever did in spring season, although I have made a specialty of wood about twelve years. I am selling wood cheaper than I have since 1898. I have a few thousand cords bought so I can sell as low as $2.00 half cord. If you burn good, original long-lasting wood you can appreciate my wood. It is perfectly dry. I make a specialty of 1-4 cords. Try one at a time.

CHAMPION GOLFERS

Victory of Mere Boy Over Old and Brilliant Players Considered Remarkable.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

PINEHURST, N. C., April 3.—The attention of the entire golfing world has been centered upon Pinehurst during the present week and the Ninth Annual United North and South Amateur Golf Championship, a contest now international in its character, the event in all important particulars one which has fronted the entire golfing world which has preceded it. Never has the field been larger or more representative, and the first division was made up almost entirely of golfers of prominence, the week as a whole standing for brilliant and sensational play and numerous prizes.

The climax of the week was the thirty-six-hole final round between James D. Standish, Jr., of the Detroit Country Club, and C. L. Becker, of the Woodland Golf Club, Auburn, Cal., a fitting end to a great tournament, several hundred people following the match from start to finish with the interest of the crowd about evenly divided between the veteran who has figured prominently here in leading events for years past, and the seventeen-year-old boy for the first time has stepped forward from the ranks of the many into the company of the few.

Brilliant Rally.

At the end of the morning round young Standish was three up with a fast card of seventy-five, but Mr. Becker's brilliant rally in the afternoon made the outcome uncertain. All the best players followed the match from start to finish with the interest of the crowd about evenly divided between the veteran who has figured prominently here in leading events for years past, and the seventeen-year-old boy for the first time has stepped forward from the ranks of the many into the company of the few.

The 1909 championship is a lad of seventeen years, and this is his first important American victory, although for two years past he has been the Austrian champion, held at Carlsbad annually in July. Throughout the week he played par golf, with scores ranging from seventy-eight to eighty, and in the final round defeating E. E. Morse, of Rutland, three up and two to play; in the second, J. D. Fook, of Apawamut, three up and one to play; and in the first, Henry C. Fowles, of Oakmont, two up and one to play.

In the face of defeat, the bright and particular star of the week was Mr. Becker. With the defeat of Allan Lard, of Chevy Chase, former champion, in the first round, he sprang to the front, and from that point on was the center of interest during the entire week.

Easy Victory.

The match with Mr. Lard was an easy victory, which ended on the fifteenth green, but the second round with Walter Fairbank, the Colorado champion, was one of the week's most brilliant contests. The score was all even at the turn, but Mr. Becker, the tenth, evening the score on the eleventh, the next five holes being played in par golf. Mr. Becker winning the short event, and then to play the match with a half on the home green. The semi-final round with Harold Weber, the Ohio champion, was a four up and three to play in Mr. Becker's favor, the story of the final struggle told in the introduction.

W. C. Fowles, of Oakmont, defeated W. E. West, of the Philadelphia Country Club, and George E. Morse, of Rutland, figured in fast matches. Mr. Fowles, on the twelfth green, the surprise of the week, as he was generally regarded as one of the possibilities of the tournament. Walter Fairbank, the Colorado champion, won a brilliant match with L. A. Hamilton, the Englewood champion, and in the consolation E. H. Gwaltney, of the Cape Fear Country Club, Wilmington, won a corking contest from Dr. W. S. Harban, of the Columbia Golf Club, Washington, on the twelfth green. Henry C. Fowles, of Oakmont, defeated his son, Charles B. Fowles, in a 21-hole match.

William T. West, of the Philadelphia Country Club, won the first division consolation. E. H. Silliman, of the Detroit Country Club, took the second, and Charles Blackburn, of Chicago, the consolation. J. P. Williamson, of the Wyoming Valley Country Club, the third, and R. E. Phifer, of Baltimore, the consolation. I. C. Bates Dana, of Great Barrington, the fourth, and E. C. Deening, of Fox Hills, the consolation.

McLeod in Lead.

PINEHURST, N. C., April 3.—National Open Champion Fred McLeod, of the Midlothian Golf Club, Chicago, led the field in to-day's thirty-six-hole United North and South open golf championship, with a fast card of 148. Gilbert Nicholls, of the Wilmington Country Club, was second, with 152, and former Open Champion Alexander Ross, one of the local professionals, finished in 155.

William C. Fowles, Jr., of the Oakmont Golf Club, led the amateurs with 153.

Weeding Out Begins.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE

Let there be no evasion—we mean chronic and supposed incurable cases involving dropsy, albumen and casts, the most terrible in a great majority of all cases.

Let us cite a typical case—that of Mr. R. F. Nitschke, of 1249 Spaulding Street, Baltimore, Md. There had been eight physicians on this case, and it got so extreme that he finally had to give up. In January, 1907, the doctors admitted that nothing further could be done, and they sent him to Eureka Springs, Ark. He returned with the stomach, heart and lungs. At one time tests showed albumen as high as 75 per cent.

Let us cite another case—that of Mr. J. W. Fulton, of 1249 Spaulding Street, Baltimore, Md. Dropsy began slowly to decline and the albumen dropped from 75 to 20 per cent, then to ten, and finally to two per cent in May, 1908.

The patient is now back to his employment and is devoting full time to his business.

Patients desiring to know more of this treatment can get full literature by writing to the John J. Fulton Company, 212 First Street, San Francisco, Cal.

Fulton's Renal Compound can be had in your city at Owens & Minor Drug Co.

We desire every patient to write us who is not getting the usual improvement by the third week.
